Product Description

4pcs smoke glass bathroom accessories set round with wood part hand soap bottle

Product introduction:

The series of bathroom accessories we launched featuring smoked glass with wooden fittings redefine the standard of luxury bath accessories. It offers you an immersive high-end bathing experience with items such as glass soap dispenser, soap dish holder, toilet brushes, and towel tray.
The smoked glass has a hazy filter effect, like the mist in the dusk, adding a mysterious and profound atmosphere to the bathroom space.

Combined with natural wooden fittings, the warm wood grain and the coldness of the glass create a wonderful collision, highlighting the balance between nature and modern aesthetics.

Practicality is also the core of the series design. The glass soap dispenser adopts a push-button design, precisely controlling the amount of soap used. With a gentle press, it releases fine foam that gently wraps around your hands. The soap dish holder can hold various shapes of soap. The toilet brushes come with a smoked glass container, balancing both cleaning power and aesthetics. The towel tray is spacious and flat, allowing you to place towels, scented candles, and other items. It serves both as a storage and decorative function.

When the first ray of sunlight breaks through the smoky glass, and when your fingertips touch the smoothness of the wooden fittings, every use is a tribute to the sense of ritual in life. Our luxury bath accessories collection is not just bathroom supplies; it is also an art piece that elevates the quality of life. Making daily bathing and washing a refined enjoyment.
Choose our bathroom supplies with smoky glass and wooden fittings, infusing your bathroom space with a low-key and luxurious soul, and embark on a new chapter of refined life.
